NUMBER 26.

A Sad Death.

A sad and very sudden death occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jones, Greensburg street, this city, last Wednesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, their daughter, Elizabeth, aged twenty-three years succumbing to an attack of appendicitis.

Only a few people in Columbia knew of her illness, though she had been complaining for several weeks, but it was not thought that her illness was of a serious nature.

Some hours before her death the doctor informed the family of the nature of her affliction, and that she could not recover, and death came at the hour above mentioned.

She was a young lady of pleasing disposition and was popular with all her associates. Being the youngest of a family of five children, she was a favorite, and her going away was heartrending. She was exceedingly modest, never engaged in frivolity, her ladylike demeanor bringing favorable comments. A girl leaving such a character will be greatly missed, not only by her sorrowing parents, and a loving brother and three sisters, but by all who knew her.

One of the sad features of this death, she was to have been married in a very short time to Mr. Tillet Wethington, son of Mr. Eugene Wethington, who was employed at Detroit, Mich. He was notified and arrived Thursday night, and at 9 o'clock Friday morning the funeral was held at the residence and the interment was in the city cemetery.

The religious services were conducted by Eld. Z. T. Williams, and at the conclusion all that was mortal of this good girl was laid to rest, a large number of sympathizing relatives and friends being present.

The floral offerings were beautiful.

Mr. Sam Suddarth recently received a letter from his cousin, Maj. Evan Suddarth, who is located in California. He was in the regular army for a number of years and was retired two years ago with the rank of a Major. He is married and doing well. He states in his letter that his brother, Walter, is a post-office inspector and that he makes his headquarters at Chicago, Ill. His brother, John, is in the army. These are sons of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Suddarth, who made their home in Columbia for many years, both being natives of the county. Maj. Evan Suddarth was born here.

Mr. Geo. Hill, of Somerset, an experienced banker, has accepted a position with the First National Bank, Russell Springs. He will be an assistant to Mr. Robt. Ingram, who is the cashier.

OIL NEWS.

BY E. T. KEMPER.

The Roy Petroleum Company, Covington, Ky., are progressing nicely with their well on the John Rector farm, on Damron's Creek, in the eastern part of Adair County, and it is confidently expected they will have something good in the way of production to report in the near future. These people control considerable acreage in Adair, and they will push development here as fast as possible.

Western people are turning their eyes toward Kentucky fields, as evidenced by certain parties from Oklahoma closing a big deal a few days since whereby they acquired several leases, and some production, in Allen County, involving the sum of $150,000. It is the general opinion of well posted oil men all over the country that Kentucky is destined to be one of the most profitable fields to be found anywhere, and Adair County comes in for its share of the interest being manifested.

The Carmanan Tin Plate and Sheet Company, of Canton, Ohio, who brought in a nice well near Creelsboro, recently, are arranging to move a drilling rig to a point near Zion's Church, a few miles east of Columbia, where development will be pushed forward as fast as possible. This looks like good territory for the liquid, and some good reports are expected from that locality soon.

Forty cent gasoline, wholesale, is predicted within the next ninety days, on account of the great shortage now confronting this country. Our daily production is 11,000,000 gallons, and we are consuming daily something like 14,000,000 gallons. Columbia dealers are now selling gasoline at 34c per gallon.

The Roy Petroleum Co. have struck a fine flow of gas on the John Smyley farm, located on Fry Creek, Casey County, the supply being ample to run the drilling machinery and to furnish heat and light for the Smyley residence. Drilling operations are still going forward there, and it is confidently expected a good oil well will be "drilled in" in the near future.

The old American well, located on Little Renox Creek, Cumberland County, Ky., drilled nearly 100 years ago, and which has flowed periodically for many years, was in action again a few days since, notwithstanding the fact that the hole is covered with many feet of mud and gravel. This well has the distinction of being the first oil well drilled in America and, so far as known, the first in the world. The oil is of a superior quality.

There are some people to be found in every community, and ours is no exception, who would not believe they had oil in their locality even if they saw it spouting up in their backyards some fine morning, but this doubting does not prove anything, for we have had "doubters" with us for ages, and they will be in evidence as long as time lasts. Adair County has some of the best structures and formations for the production of oil and gas to be found anywhere, and the time will surely come, and we don't believe it is very far distant, when this section will be one of the active producing fields of the country. Not only is this true of Adair, but of the adjoining counties as well, and big things are in store for Columbia, it being the logical "hub" for this territory.

Thomas, a six year old son of Judge and Mrs. T. A. Murrell, Louisville, some few days ago got one of his legs broken while riding a tricycle. It is now in plaster paris, and as soon as he gets well the Judge and his family are coming to Columbia for an extended visit.

A Lamentable Death.

The readers of the News have known for six or eight weeks that Misses Verna and Lula Todd, estimable young ladies of this county, living one and a half miles north of Columbia, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Todd, were in a critical condition at Bowling Green, as the result of flu. Occasionally favorable reports would come, and a week ago hope was entertained that each of the young ladies would recover. This feeling of confidence was turned into sorrow Sunday morning when a message came stating that Miss Lula died at 5 a. m.

Mr. W. E. Todd, brother of the deceased, left at once for Bowling Green to perfect arrangements for the return of the body. It reached here Monday afternoon and was conveyed to the home. Many friends had gathered to pour words of consolation into the hearts of aged and almost heart-broken parents and loving sisters and brother. Miss Lula was a fine young woman, a splendid manager and has been a great help to her father and mother, who have passed the age of activity.

Words of sympathy have been heard on all corners in Columbia, and many town people attended the last sad rites. The funeral was held at the residence Tuesday, all the neighborhood being in attendance. The interment was in the Murray graveyard.

May God in his infinite wisdom comfort the heart-broken parents, brother and sisters. While they can not again see their dear one in the flesh, they can by living close to God, see her in the celestial city.

Her sister, Miss Verna, yet remains in a critical condition at Bowling Green.

Miss Lula was a devout member of the Presbyterian Church, Rev. B. T. Watson officiating at the funeral, assisted by Rev. L. J. B. Smith and Eld. Z. T. Williams.

The floral offerings were many. The surviving members of the family, besides the parents, are W. E. Todd, Mrs. Minnie Johnson, Mrs. Horace Jeffries, Mrs. Clyde Crenshaw and Miss Verna Todd.

The faculty and students of the high school department of Lindsey-Wilson very delightfully entertained Friday evening, in honor of Mr. Elmer Ashby, senior of that institution. The Y. M. C. A., hall in which the reception was held was beautifully decorated in the high school colors, purple and gold, and the color scheme was carried out throughout the evening. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Mr. Ashby came from Henderson to this school four years ago and his graduation will remove one of the most efficient and loyal students ever enrolled in Lindsey-Wilson.

Mr. E. H. Pearce, a "live wire" from Blackwell, Okla., who has gas and oil interests in this section, is spending a few days in town looking over the situation generally, and he expresses himself very freely in an optimistic way regarding the development in the near future in this locality. Mr. Pearce expects to bring his family and locate in Columbia sometime in June.

To Our Friend.

During the many years the undersigned were in business in Columbia we were liberally patronized by the people of Adair and adjoining counties, and we want our friends to know that we are not unmindful of the partiality shown us. To say that the trade we received was highly appreciated, would not be stating our true feelings. We are very grateful, and the steadfastness of our loyal supporters will never be forgotten. During the long term of our business, we have endeavored to please—have handled the best of everything in our line, and distributed the same on a short margin. We have the best of reason to feel thankful, and we would be ungrateful were we to fail to let our former patrons know that we will always cherish the fondest recollections of the favors bestowed upon us.

For the present, we go out of business, but the happy years spent in the brick, in the southeast corner of the square, will continue to bring up the most pleasant memories of by-gone days.

We are succeeded by The R. L. Davis Hardware Co., and we have not a doubt but it will use all its efforts to conduct the business in a most satisfactory manner. We take pleasure in commending the new firm, not only to the people of Adair county, but to all the adjoining counties. Mr. Davis has a large acquaintance, and he is known to be a courteous and high-toned gentleman. His three sons, Shreve, Fred and Owen, who are with him, are industrious, accommodating, and popular young men. Miss Mollie Caldwell, who is interested, is known as one of Adair county's best young women.

As we see it, prosperity awaits the new firm.

Very truly,

Suicide Near Greensburg.

Last Tuesday the people of Greensburg and those living near the town, were shocked when the news spread over the country that Miss Lou Blakeman, who was a sister-in-law of Dr. W. B. Helm, had suicided.

The deceased was a maiden lady and was between forty and fifty years old. She had been in declining health for some time and a trained nurse was in attendance.

The nurse, as we are informed, absented herself from the room, and while she was out, Miss Blakeman made her way to the cellar of the dwelling, procured a rope, and hung herself. She was dead when found.

She was a very estimable woman, and had lived in the home of Dr. Helm and his mother-in-law, since the death of the doctor's wife, which occurred a number of years ago. She was a mother to her sister's children, and her tragic death brought untold sorrow. She did not lack for the comforts of life, and the only reason advanced for the suicide is that she was in wretched health.

She was treated as a sister by Dr. Helm, her every wish being gratified.

Our readers will be pleased to know that the bright J. B. Colt Lights sold by the late Daniel Boone have not only been proven practical and up to date for house and barn lighting purposes, but a well-known farmer's wife in the Bliss Community has found them a great protection against Burglars and theft. Being aroused by a great squall and commotion in the poultry house at the dead hour of night, she quietly and thoughtfully turned on the "Bright Light" on the back porch and they all hurried to the scene of action. By the bright lights in the poultry house, they easily and safely captured the Theft, while in the act of carrying away the high priced poultry. He was proven guilty beyond a shadow of a doubt, and is now in prison where all rogues and thefts belong. To all home owners, stock and poultry raisers, Be ye prepared likewise, for in such an hour and time as you least expect the theft will come and be gone. Adv.

Worth While.

A pike is now being constructed from the Eunice Bridge which spans Green river to Knifley. The dirt road is practically level and in fine condition to the bridge across the river at Dunnville. If the Green river hill leading from Columbia to the bridge was graded we would have a good road to Liberty, Stanford and Danville. There are very few people living along this route, and they should be given assistance, and Columbia would receive great benefit if this work was put through. Therefore, the people who would be the greatest benefitted should become interested. Since State aid has been withdrawn the people living along this route will have to build it with the assistance of others who want to see the county prosper.

A Card.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jones and their son and daughters desire to return their grateful thanks to the many who so kindly administered to their daughter and sister, Lizzie, in her illness, resulting in death. Faithful friends in the hour of distress and deepest sorrow, can not be forgotten.

Died in Oklahoma.

The death of Mrs. Amanda English, in Guthrie, Oklahoma, on the 15th of March, removed from earthly existence, a most highly esteemed Christian Lady to a home of eternal rest. She made her home with her son, John in the city above mentioned and passed away from the infirmities of age, being seventy-nine years and seven months old at her death.

Mrs. English's maiden name was Amanda Royse, and was born in Adair county, Aug. 15th, 1840. She was married to Charles H. English, in Feb., 1869, and to this union six children were born, four of whom still survive, being Robt. English, of Milltown, Mrs. Lora Bryant, Marrowbone, Mrs. Ida Garrett and John H. English, of Guthrie, Okla. Also step children as follows, Mrs. Lee Johnson and Mr. Charles English, of Warren county Ky., and Mr. J. A. English, of West Point, Miss. Mrs. English's husband preceded her to the eternal land many years ago, since which time she has made her home with her son, as above stated. In early life she united with the Methodist Church, and lived a consistent member until her departure, with a faith that could not be shaken. It was a fitting circumstance that Rev. Crockett Paul, formerly from Cumberland county, preached the funeral discourse of this most excellent old lady, and his friend in former years. The body was laid to rest in the cemetery in the city of her adopted home and the world has one less christian life to illuminate the moral life in which she lived. She had reached a ripe age, reared her children under noble instruction and lived a life worthy of emulation. May the Giver of All Good bless the sorrowing, and may they emulate her christian virtues in the wish and hope of the writer. A Friend.

On Which Side Do You Stand?

The liquor traffic has wrecked more lives than war. It has brought more sorrows and sufferings to women and children than all the other curses which the devil has fastened upon mankind.

Its prosperity has been fertilized by the tears of womanhood;

it was founded on broken hearts, on wrecked bodies and eternally damned souls.

It has been the creator and upholder of rotten politics.

It has helped to fill the dens of vice, and it has encouraged immorality that it might thereby increase its accursed profits.

It was upheld by and its influence upheld houses of ill-fame as instigators of liquor consumption and all other body and soul-destroying agencies of hell.

It fed the fires of lust that it might fatten on the sin it created.

It filled the land with saloons, the hotbed of personal and of political corruption, which were the doors that led straight down to ruin here and to hell hereafter.

Indeed, it turned millions of homes into hells.

It brutalized its agents and damned its followers.

It stretched out its slimy, stinking, rotten hands into the political life of the nation.

It browbeat or bulldozed or bribed legislators and business men alike.

It sought to destroy even the banks whose officials were opposed to its hell-born power.

The slave trade of olden days, in its vilest forms, when in order to destroy all evidence the miserable wretches were dumped overboard to drown when the slave ship was pursued by British cruisers, was angelic in character as compared with the liquor traffic.

If every slave ever held in captivity had been treated as inhumanly as were some by brutish masters, the sufferings of all would have been mild as compared with the monster of the liquor traffic.

Germany's vilest crimes were no worse than the work of this hell-born, hell-directed liquor business.

And yet when the nation had loosened its clutches, when its strangle-hold on the morality and the political safety of the country had been almost broken, it once more lifts its tigerlike spirit that it may again suck the nation's morality and political honor.

Once more the harlots, the whoremongers, the liars, the touts, the race-track gamblers, the licentious of all classes unite to restore the reign of this king of death who gloats over ruined bodies and wrecked souls.

And to their everlasting shame some men who profess to love honor and virtue, men who do not want to see their sons and daughters the victims of this licentious power, are standing on the side of the evil forces arrayed against individual and national morality. Surely they must be ashamed of their co-workers and co-partners.

When in the great judgment day they stand with uncovered souls before Almighty God, how many of them will be forced to see pass before them in awful

As grass makes up the bulk of feed for geese, it is doubtful whether it pays to raise them unless good grass range is available during summer.

The hen that has free range on a farm in summer finds these same things and that is one reason why neglected farm flocks lay well in summer and very poorly at other times.

The results found by experiment seem to prove the contention of some Leghorn breeders that their birds are light eaters in comparison with some other breeds.

hens are on hand, and if they are healthy and vigorous, all that is required to obtain a good egg yield is the right kind of care and feed.

There is no one kind of grain that alone will furnish all of the different food elements required to maintain the body of the hen in good condition and also furnish the material of which eggs are made.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

FOR CONGRESS.

We are authorized to announce
RALPH GILBERT, of Shelby county, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in this, the Eighth Congressional District of Kentucky.
State Primary Election Saturday,
August 7, 1920.

We are authorized to announce
FRANK L. BIPY, of Anderson County, a Democratic candidate for Congress, in the Eighth district, subject to the action of the State primary
August 7, 1920.

The new tax law which Gov. Morrow attacked in all of his speeches, remains unchanged in any particular. There has been no reduction of taxation anywhere. On the contrary, the minimum school tax levied in the counties has been raised from 15 to 25 cents. This means an increase of taxation upon the people amounting to $1,000,000. A gasoline tax has been levied, which it is estimated will amount to $600,000. The new automobile tax will amount to $2,000,000 additional. So as the result of three months of Gov. Morrow, the taxes of the people have been increased $3,500,000 a year.

Democrats of Adair County are again reminded that a mass convention will be held in this place Saturday May 1st. The object of the meeting is to select delegates to attend the State Convention which will meet in Louisville on May 4th. All Democrats who can attend the meeting here on Saturday May 1st, should do so.

The Republican majority, in the last legislature, refused to reduce the State tax rate on real estate from forty to twenty-five cents. The majority also voted down every proposition to tax coal and to increase the rate on intangibles. The coal is in the mountains where Republicans are thick.

The Editor of the Stanford Journal went to Cincinnati last week, to buy news paper. He only found one ton for which he paid $300. The same paper was bought a few years ago for $45 per ton. Unless publishers have a good bank account, more Kentucky papers will go to the wall.

Senators Beckham and Stanley met in Louisville last Friday and talked over the coming Democratic State Convention. They agreed as they should, to take no part in the framing of the Committees.

THE STATE CONVENTION.

The Democratic State Convention, to be held in Louisville, May 4th, will in reality be a big conference of Democrats from every quarter of the State, of all shades of belief.

It will be a convention in which every element in the party will be recognized, but the recognition will be given their Democracy, and nothing else. Members who have been prominent in the so-called factions which have heretofore existed in the party will receive honors from the Convention, but they will receive such honors as Democrats and not as factionalists.

The Convention will, we believe, steer clear of party strife, because strife is certain to bring disaster, while harmony is the sure harbinger of victory.

It will be a notable meeting of Kentucky Democrats in Louisville. No such prospective tactics as those which marked the recent Republican State Convention in Louisville will be countenanced. There will be no A. T. Hert in the Democratic party to whom allegiance supersedes allegiance to the party itself. No dotted line will have to be signed by the delegates.

It will be a free and untrammelled discussion of men and measures by the representatives of all Kentucky Democrats, and those Republican gentry who are so eagerly looking for trouble are doomed to disappointment.

Both Candidates in Town.

Both of the candidates for the democratic nomination for Congress in this district were in the city mingling with the court day crowd Monday. Col. Frank L. Ripy and Judge Ralph Gilbert arrived Sunday night and ate breakfast at the same table at Hotel Acey Monday morning. The gentlemen put in a busy day and each expressed himself as well satisfied at the conclusion of activities late in the evening. That both Col. Ripy and Judge Gilbert have many friends in Lincoln county there is no doubt and if the district is like Lincoln county there is a horse-race in sight. The belief is general that the race is made up but the I. J. has a hunch that there will be a third entry in the field before many moons wax and wane. We shall see what we shall see.

—Stanford Journal.

Gradyville,

We had plenty of hail Friday. Tobacco plants are coming right along. Will be ready for transplanting in due time.

Our growing wheat crop is looking better in this section.

Our peaches are not killed, and we think we will have plenty.

Several of our farmers are about ready to plant corn.

The sale of the property of the late Thos. Moss was largely attended, last Saturday, property selling well.

We take it that our pike from Columbia to this place is a sure go this time. Our people are donating largely. Every body wants the pike.

John Q. Alexander, the well-known dry goods man of Louisville, was in our midst last Friday, and as usual had a good business.

L. B. Cain received a nice lot of hogs, at this place, last Thursday, at the market price.

Mr. Joe Hunter, who has been confined to his room for several months with a broken limb, is now able to be up, going around his home.

Mr. James Hoy and family, of Columbia, visited their relatives here a day or so the first of the week.

Mr. Ray Flowers, of Columbia, in company with J. Boone, of Louisville, passed through here the first of the week, en route for Nell community, where they will offer for sale the J. B. Colt Lighting plant.

Uncle Charles Yates and uncle Robert O. Keltner, two of our oldest citizens, are keeping up fine and are able to be out every day, looking after their affairs.

Mr. T. I. Smith, of Cane Valley, and Mr. McCubbins, of Eve, attended the sale of the late Thos. Moss, at this place last Saturday.

Mr. W. B. Hill, the well-known Pratt food man, spent a few days in our midst last week and before he left subscribed liberally to the pike proposition. William knows the benefit of good roads.

Mr. Clay Kinnaird and Thomas Bell, two of Red Lick's best farmers and business men, were in our midst the first of the week. They report the farmers in their community making a great effort for a large crop of tobacco and corn.

Mr. Jack Barnes, one of the best farmers and citizens that lives in the western part of the county, near Weed, had the misfortune of losing his dwelling with all its contents one day last week. The fire originated from a defective flue. Mr. Barnes did not get to save a change of clothing. It being the noon hour, he was at his meal and did not know his house was on fire until it was nearly ready to cave in.

Mr. Porter Wheeler, a son of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Wheeler, who left us a week or so ago for Moody, Texas, writes his people that he landed safe and sound, and liked the country fine, and had a nice, good job. This is no more than we all expected, because we knew him to be a young man that had a disposition to make friends, anywhere he might locate, because he never met a stranger.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wheeler will leave in short time for McGregor, Texas, where they will spend the summer, with their relatives. Mr. Wheeler has been in very bad health for several months and he thinks now while he is gone, he will go to the John Hopkins Hospital, and will undergo an operation. His many friends and relatives back here hope this trip will prove beneficial to him, and that he will be restored to his usual health and be permitted to return to his old home, a well and sound man, because we need more men like Mr. Wheeler in Adair county.

We understand there are a number of cases of measles in the Basil community and there have been two or three deaths. We have not learned the names of the persons who were the victims.

How a True Preacher and Faithful Pastor Feels for His People.

Written for Eld. Z. T. Williams for his twentieth anniversary as preacher and pastor of the Christian Church in Columbia, Kentucky.

By his life-long friend,
Jesse L. Murrell.

For twenty years I've tried to preach
To you, my people dear;
My ideals I have not reached,
But served with best of cheer.

My powers have been at God's command,
I've trusted all to Him;

And for His truth I've tried to stand
Hating all forms of sin.
The sick have had my thought and care

Sorrowing ones as well;
Of the erring have not despaired,
To God their troubles tell.

I've prayed for all both night and day
I've longed their souls to bless;
Have pointed out the narrow way,
That leads to endless rest.

I've tried to walk before you all
As God would have me do;
Obey His every blessed call,
In all things to be true.

My records in my Savior's hand
His mercy is my plea;
For me He will not fail to stand,
His glory I shall see.

Many have by me nobly stood,
And helped me in the fight;
They've done the very best they could,
They've lived as in God's sight.

Others have failed to do their best,
How lean their souls have grown;
God's promises they do not test,
And reap as they have sown.

The boys and girls, and children, too,
How I do pray for you;
That you to Him each day be true,
His will in all things do.

I have much love for all my flock,
My prayers for them ascend,
That they may stand on Christ, the Rock,

And serve Him to the end.
My faithful wife has by me stood,
In days of trial sore;
Has helped me much, yea all she could,
God bless her more and more,

To all I wish the very best,
Be true to God above;
That you in Him be richly blest,
And walk in His great love.

I beg you all to pray for me,
That I with Christ accord;
And spend a long eternity
With all who love my Lord.

He is evidently jealous of everybody fact is, he is damaging himself. He fails to give his right name. For instance, if his name is Smith, he signs, another name, and in that way he deceives the printer. If we can learn positively who is doing this dirty work he will get a write up that he will

TRY TAKING PEPTO-MANGAN

It Isn't Sleep You Need, But a Good Tonic—More Red Blood

Everyone gets run down occasionally. Sometimes it's weeks before you get your energy, enthusiasm and happiness back again.

Any doctor will tell you to be careful in a time like this. Your body has little power of resistance, and the danger of catching some serious disease is great. Temporarily, your blood has too few "fighting" corpuscles.

It's the work of these same red corpuscles to keep you free from fatigue. Being constantly tired out—depressed in body and mind—is almost a sure sign that your blood needs help for a time.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan is a standard remedy in cases of anemia (or bloodlessness.) It supplies the iron and other properties your blood needs to catch up with its task of keeping you fresh and alert in every fibre.

Pepto-Mangan has the hearty endorsement of physicians, is an agreeable tonic to take, and may be had at any drug store in either liquid or tablet form. Both have same medicinal value.

Be sure to ask for Gude's. There is only one genuine Pepto-Mangan, and the name "Gude's" should be on the package.—Advertisement.

Cox for President

Those Democrats in Kentucky who believe that Governor James M. Cox of Ohio because of his great ability and superior qualifications should be the next President of the United States, have decided to lay his claim before our Democratic voters with the hope that they will join us in securing delegates to the San Francisco convention, who will favor his nomination.

To secure a delegation from Kentucky to San Francisco it is first necessary that all Democrats who are for Cox shall attend the county mass convention to be held in the various county seats at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of Saturday, May 1st, and see that the delegates they send to the Democratic State Convention at Louisville, Tuesday, May 4th, are Cox men.

This is no time for strife within the Democratic party. The man who undertakes to create the impression that the COX MOVEMENT is a movement in the interest of every individual branch, wing or faction of the Democratic party in Kentucky, is not a well-wisher for party unity and party success.

Former United States Senator Johnson Camden of Versailles has accepted the chairmanship of the organization that is being made for the Governor in Kentucky, and that is sufficient guarantee that the movement is not to be factional.

Gov. James M. Cox For Our Next President.

Senator Camden in a statement given to the press, said: "I am for Governor Cox because I believe him to be the one man who can win against the Republicans in November. He is safe and liberal, has a record in Congress, and three terms as Governor of Ohio. He is a man every inch of him, and one around whom every element in the Democratic party can rally. He began life as a newsboy and made his own way. He is a sound and successful business man, has never had any serious labor trouble during his demonstration in Ohio. He is broad-gauged in every respect and has proved that he can draw strength from every element of the voting population."

We endorse Governor Cox because we know James M. Cox to be one hundred per cent American, because he has demonstrated his Americanism and we know that he is the only kind of American that will be selected to the White House as the successor to Woodrow Wilson.

We know that it takes an extraordinarily good man of the Democratic party to even once carry the State of Ohio which normally is Republican, by over one hundred thousand majority.

And, so we know that when a man carries Ohio three times as has Cox, he is what the fellows who go to the races call a safe "hoss."

We want first a capable man in the White House and we want him to be a Democrat.

Cox is capable, Cox is honest, Cox is a Democrat, and he is the best runner in our party as he seems to us. That's why we are for Cox at this time and that's why we want Kentucky to be for Cox.

The COX HEADQUARTERS will be open at the Seelbach Hotel at Louisville for communication from all who are interested and believe that this great man should be nominated and where all Democrats will be welcome.

The Year 1920 Will Be One Fraught With Momentous Making of History.

In the libraries of the future, the historical volumes, marked 1920, will deal with a critical period of the world's history.

The whole world is now in a frenzy of discontent. In the old world new parties with new policies, each striving for control, are walking hand in hand with the spectre of distrust, where they are not already dying in the flame of fratricidal war.

In the United States profiteering has become a science, all sense of values is gone. Bolshevism is raising its vicious head, and labor and capital, by passing the buck, each to the other, are leaving the middle class bearing the brunt of the burden.

It is a critical period through which this world is passing, and one that demands the whole-souled interest of every thinking man and woman in this world.

You can not perform your duties as a citizen of this country unless you think right; you can not think right unless you are fully informed; you can not be fully informed unless you read a daily newspaper.

As a citizen, and as a voter, you wish to vote intelligently. You wish to know what the leaders of the big political parties are offering as the panacea for this present condition. In order to perform this duty intelligently, you must have access to the news as it is published day by day.

Granted that it is your duty to read a daily newspaper, it is also your duty to read the paper that will give you the most news, particularly when its cost is the same as the others.

The Louisville Herald has the largest circulation of any morning newspaper in Kentucky, and all Louisville newspapers are sold at the same price, this is self-evident proof that it is considered the best paper by the most people.

The Louisville Herald gives you the news from the Associated Press, that wonderful news gathering organization, which covers the entire world with its list of correspondents; in addition it gives you all the news from Europe that is gathered by the Universal News Service; this in addition to The Herald's own list of special correspondents and its editorial staff. No newspaper can give you more than this—few can give you as much.

The Louisville Herald, apart from its general news value, thoroughly covers the financial world, and keeps you fully informed as to the daily fluctuations on all marketable commodities. News of the world of sports is more than a tabulation of sporting events, as compiled for The Herald's sport page.

The Louisville Herald contains more features of general family interest than we have space to specify in the short space of this advertisement; but we will say this much, that there is something of interest to every member of your family in every issue. We will, if you are unfamiliar with The Herald, gladly send you a sample copy on request. We would suggest that in order to protect yourself against a raise in subscription price for the coming year, that you give your order to your local agent now; if there is none in your town, send in the coupon below.

For many years this country has been flooded with fake or shady concerns in which stock has been sold to a gullible public, generally to the small investor who can ill afford to lose his savings. Since the supreme court has ruled that incomes from stocks are not subject to taxation it is possible that many more of these fakes will spring into existence, on the theory that the public will rush to place its surplus funds in stocks. If this be the case people of our community should apply the acid test to any stock certificate offered them before parting with a dollar of their hard earned money. The fakir is a man with a smooth tongue, and he knows only too well how to use it.

If Stops Then.

In the western part of Brown county a farmer has found a plan to keep autoists from speeding by his home. Last summer several of his chickens were killed by automobiles, and when one of his pigs, weighing almost 100 pounds, was crushed under the wheels of an auto, he decided it was time to do something to stop them. He did. He dug small ditches, one foot wide and eight inches deep, across the road about ten feet apart, and this plan proved successful. He says that after a machine going at 35 miles an hour strikes one of these ditches and the occupants of the machine are almost thrown out, the machine always slows down to a very slow gait. —Indianapolis News.

Helps Sick Women

Cardui, the woman's tonic, helped Mrs. William Eversole, of Hazel Patch, Ky. Read what she writes: "I had a general breaking-down of my health. I was in bed for weeks, unable to get up. I had such a weakness and dizziness, . . . and the pains were very severe. A friend told me I had tried everything else, why not Cardui? . . . I did, and soon saw it was helping me . . . After 12 bottles, I am strong and well."

If you could buy a friend for $5.00 a year!

—a friend with stimulating ideas on national and local problems, one whose views would command as much respect, for instance, as that received by the editorial page of the Louisville Courier-Journal:

—a friend who would meet you early in the day and tell you in a concise, authoritative way about every important world event during the preceding twenty-four hours, quoting what the New York Times was printing the same morning, what the reliable Associated Press was saying about politics, strikes, or the High Cost of Living; giving you news which he had received by wire the night before from correspondents all over Kentucky, Indiana, and Tennessee;

—a friend who would sit down while you were eating your cereal and draw a cartoon which would make you think, and then some pictures that would make you laugh;

—a friend versatile enough to give your wife just what she wants to know about cooking, shopping and fashions, then entertain the children every day with a forest animal story.

—a friend who is not obtrusive, but who stands ready, any moment during the day to answer your questions about racing, boxing or any other sport—and the next minute "tip you off," if you want him to, on the way stocks are selling on the metropolitan markets.

—If you only COULD buy a friend like that, and for $5.00 a year.

—You Couldn't Spend the Money Too Quickly, Yet

The daily Courier-Journal is ready to do all that this person might. Its opinions always are worth careful consideration; its news service is reliable and complete, its features for the home and for every member of the family are entertaining and instructive, and it costs only $5.00 for an entire year.

WAR MOTHERS' MEMORIAL BRIDGE TO SPAN KENTUCKY RIVER AT STATE CAPITAL

From a Water Color Rendering By Leo L. Oberwarth, A. I. A., Architect, Frankfort, Ky.

The War Mothers of Kentucky, an organization of the women who gave their sons upon call of their government that the world might be free, have determined that the patriotism and heroism of all Kentuckians in the late world war shall be memorialized in a most lasting way by the building of a memorial bridge across the Kentucky River at the State Capital. This splendid monument, shown above, was given the strongest endorsement by the General Assembly of Kentucky at the session just closed, with the suggestion that it be made a part of the great public highway scheme laid out by the Assembly.

The organization of War Mothers, which is made up of county units representing each of the one hundred and twenty counties of Kentucky, determined to unite in a single memorial, build by the combined efforts of the county organizations rather than scattered monuments. They decided that the monument be an emblem representing the entire Commonwealth; that it should be a practical, useful memorial and that it should be located where it would be a spectacle to the greatest number of people of the Commonwealth. A glance at the picture shows the very practical side of these suggestions. The bridge will cross the Kentucky River at the head of Main street in the city of Frankfort, its southern end resting on Capitol avenue, a street one hundred and fifty feet in width and ending with the new State Capitol and Governor's Mansion. Architecturally the bridge is designed strictly in harmony with the Capitol. It can be seen from both the steam and electric car lines coming into and leaving the Capital city as well as autoist passing along the Midland Trail. It is proposed that each county of Kentucky be represented in the memorial by the placing of a bronze tablet for each along the main avenue of the structure, the tablet to contain the names of the soldiers and sailors the county furnished to the National Government in the war. The entrance arches of the structure will contain public comfort stations, rest rooms and drinking fountains, there will be projecting bays, with seats, on either side of the walk ways of the bridge. Electric light standards ending in flag poles for decorative purposes will be placed at the bays. The approaches to the bridge North and South will be embellished with permanent landscape plantings.

That the Capital City of Kentucky is the proper setting for such a splendid memorial is generally accepted by the people who have interested themselves in the project. People from every section of Kentucky are in Frankfort daily. That the General Assembly held to this idea is shown by the following resolution of endorsement which was adopted unanimously in both branches of that body:

Whereas, The organization known as the War Mothers of the State of Kentucky, made up of the patriotic women who gave their sons to the cause of world freedom and sent them across the seas to battle for that cause, while they, remaining at home, gave their energy and time to every war effort fostered by the National Government, is now engaged in promoting a State memorial to the men who took up arms at their country's call; and,

Whereas, This organization has determined that such memorial should not be in the form of a monument, such as has been customary in the past, but a memorial that will ever be of use and benefit to the people of Kentucky while adorning the approach to Kentucky's Capitol and contributing to making of the Capital City of Kentucky a city all Kentuckians will be proud of; now, therefore,

Be It resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of Kentucky, that we do most heartily endorse this worthy movement upon the part of the War Mothers of the State and sincerely hope that their vision of a great Memorial Bridge across the Kentucky River at the Capital City will shortly be realized.

And be it further resolved, we view with approval the plan of having each of the one hundred and twenty counties of Kentucky represented in this splendid Memorial Bridge the placing thereon of a bronze tablet containing the names of the soldiers who served from the various counties, and with special reference to those who gave up their lives.

We would urge upon the present State officials that they co-operate in every way with the War Mothers in this project, particularly the State Road Department, which might make of this structure part of the great highway scheme now being worked out in Kentucky, and would recommend to the next General Assembly that they assist in making such memorial possible.

HAPPY WOMAN REALIZES HER MISTAKE NOW

"I Would Be About $100 Better off If I'd Have Taken Trutona First," Mrs. Brown's Statement.

Louisville, Ky., Apr. 20.—"I realize now that I'd be about one hundred dollars better off if I'd taken Trutona first, instead of trying the numerous medicines I did without getting results." Mrs. R. E. Brown, 662 South Twenty-third Street, Louisville, told the Trutona Representative recently. "I had indigestion," Mrs. Brown said in describing her troubles. "It seemed there was nothing I could eat that would agree with me. The indigestion caused me to be annoyed with dizziness. If I would stoop over I felt like I was going to fall and if I walked up stairs I'd be annoyed by black spots forming before my eyes." "So many people spoke highly of Trutona in the papers that I decided to try it. Many of them had suffered from troubles like mine, too. I had tried medicine after medicine without result and had gotten fairly disgusted. I'll tell you. But Trutona has entirely relieved all of my troubles and I can truthfully say now, that I feel better than I have for years."

Mrs. Brown's statement should prove of the deepest interest to every one who is suffering from stomach, liver and bowel troubles. That Trutona completely relieved her troubles after other medicines failed, has been definitely stated and if Trutona will do that for one person—as a matter of fact, the Perfect Tonic has done it for thousands—it will certainly do the same for you.

Trutona is sold in Columbia at Paul Drug Co. Adv.

Decoration Day will be observed at West Fork grave yard, Cumberland County, on May 30th. Everybody is invited to be present and all are requested to bring well-filled baskets. There will be several memorial addresses.

M. J. D. Patterson, who lives at Plenic, this county, was in the News Office last Friday. He stated that the early sown wheat in his section was looking fine. The late sown at this time looks thin, but he thought it would come out. Taking it altogether, he concluded the prospects were good for a large crop in his part of the county.
